The Society of American Military Engineers

Washington DC Post

SAME is a professional Society, one of the oldest and most respected in the United States. It maintains the highest standards of professionalism, fosters exchange of ideas, and encourages team work between military and civilian engineers and architects. This union of military and civilian design professionals has increased the design potential of the United States and helps our Nation “stay ready.” As its Charter acclaims, The Society is “Dedicated to the National Defense.”

The Washington DC Post of SAME is made up of approximately 1,000 individual members and 150 corporate members. The Post offers scholarships annually to architectural and engineering college students, with an emphasis on those in the Washington DC Post area.

Scholarship applicants must meet the following criteria to be eligible:

- * A US Citizen.
- * A full-time undergraduate student at an accredited university, with current undergraduate status (freshman through junior) and anticipated undergraduate status (sophomore through senior).
- * Pursuing a major in built environment engineering, architecture, or environmental science.
- * Of good character.

Applicants should complete the form on the reverse side and attach a narrative specifically addressing the following topics in the order listed:

- * Academic Performance
- * Academic/Professional Goals
- * Financial Need (Ability to pay for college; other financial assistance to be received)
- * Extracurricular Activities including Participation in SAME Student Chapter or Activities
- * Summary of Previous Military Service, if any
- * Statement of why applicant should be considered for award
- * Other comments to assist selection process.

Narrative should be typewritten, no more than two pages, and have no more than 8 lines per topic.

*The applicant’s school counselor, academic advisor, or administrator must endorse each application to verify enrollment. Financial awards are remitted directly to student accounts on or about July 1. Formal recognition takes place at the “2013 Scholarship Awards Dinner” at the Army & Navy Club in Washington. The 2014 Awards Dinner date is Wednesday September 17. Up to 12 awards of $3000 each will be granted in 2014. Decisions relating to Award are by the Post only and are final.

Applications should be mailed to the address given on the form, to arrive no later than June 30, 2014.
